

About the Presenter

Nina W. Brown Ed.D., LPC, NCC, FAGPA is a professor and eminent scholar in the Department of Counseling and Human Services at Old Dominion University. Her specialty areas are group therapy and narcissism.

Her publications include twenty-one books and over 50 articles. Recent published books are "Psychoeducational Groups" (2010), "Uptight" (2010), "Becoming a group leader" (2009), and the second edition of "Children of the Self-Absorbed". The next book "Creative Activities for Group Therapy" will be published in 2012. Dr. Brown, currently president of the Society of Group Psychology and Group Psychotherapy, is involved nationally and internationally with the Association for Specialists in Group Work and the American Group Psychotherapy Association. Her leisure activities are reading mysteries, scrapbooking, and creating collages.

Workshop timetable

Saturday 8:30am – 5:00pm (registration 8:30 – 9:00am)

Sunday 8:30am – 5:00pm

Workshop fees

The fee includes continental breakfast, refreshments and lunch on both days.

$230 CGPS Member ($200 early bird)

$250 Non-member ($230 early bird)

$65 Full-time student (includes membership fee)

The early bird discount rate applies to registrations received before April 1st.

To apply for a scholarship contact the workshop coordinator Russ Hopfenberg.

Register today!

Book early; attendance is limited.

Online: www.carolinasgps.org

Or call Russ Hopfenberg 919-431-0085

CEUs 12.5 applied for

Carolinas Group Psychotherapy Society is an affiliate society of the American Group Psychotherapy Association (AGPA). We seek to promote and enhance skills in group therapy and organizational group dynamics while supporting professionals working to improve the mental health and interpersonal skills of persons in the Carolinas.

Russ Hopfenberg Ph.D. CGP
1100 Navaho Drive
Raleigh, NC 27609-7319

looking at me

looking at you

looking at us

Carolinas Group Psychotherapy Society
presents its annual Spring Workshop

April 14 – 15, 2012

Countertransference and Process Illumination in Group Psychotherapy